8:15-3:00

Literacy-Based Therapy Bootcamp

Proven strategies and therapy activities to conquer your caseload without breaking a sweat (or missing your lunch break).

Course Description

Participants will be presented with strategies to streamline their workload and confidently approach therapy sessions using a literacy-based therapy framework. Topics discussed will include structuring effective therapy sessions, targeting specific goals using evidence-based strategies, scaffolding language skills in context, as well as making therapy relevant in an academic context. Participants will walk away with a solid framework, resources, and actionable steps to implement these strategies with their caseload.

Who Should Attend?

Speech Language Pathologists and Special Education Teachers

Location and Time

*First Church of the Nazarene / 6789 NW 39th Expressway
